Friday 8th November 2019

Dear Parents/carers,

On Wednesday 13th November, as part of our Autumn Term class film study of 'Planet of the Apes', our Y6 class will be heading out to the Natural History Museum. There, we will explore the fascinating 'Human Evolution' exhibition. The trip will be a key part of our science learning for the half term.

We will leave school at 10:00am, travel by London Underground and return to school by 2:30pm. The school will provide a packed lunch for your child. Please ensure they have a coat in case of bad weather. There is no cost to this trip.

Please could you email me to give permission for your child to join us on this trip:

Yours sincerely,

Daniel Mahara
